A Weekly Blurb to highlight the activities, achievements, and action plans of Ghazi University Faculty & Staff.

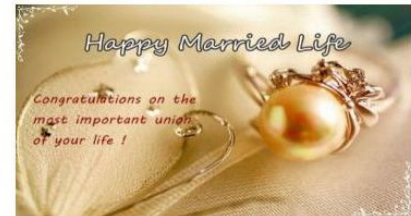

Message of Vice Chancellor on Pakistan Day (23 March) I whole heartedly join Ghazi University students, staff and faculty to celebrate the Pakistan day. This historic day signifies the value of self-governance, freedom, equality, peace and social justice. As educators and the members of a democratic civil society, we should continue to improve the lives of our fellow citizens to transform Pakistan into an ideal state based upon the principles of mutual inclusiveness, self-respect, dignity and social harmony. As education is the panacea of many problems of our society, we should collectively keep ourselves focused in enhancing our educational standards to promote socio-economic development, innovation, health care and egalitarian views.
