

ACADEMIC COSTUMES.

The Chancellor, Pro-Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, Fellows, Officers and Graduates of the University shall wear Academic Costumes as under:

Chancellor & Pro-Chancellor

Gown: Black velvet with full sleeves and with two stripes two inches wide, of gold velvet on the border running full length in front; and three stripes, one-inch-wide and two inches apart, of gold velvet four inches from the bottom of the sleeve. Cap Black velvet academic cap with golden tassel.

Vice Chancellor & Pro Vice Chancellor

Gown Black velvet with full sleeves and with two stripes two inches wide of silver velvet on the border running full length in front and three stripes, one-inch-wide and two inches apart, of silver velvet four inches from the bottom of the sleeve.
Cap Black velvet academic cap with silver tassel

Fellows, Deans, Directors, Registrar, Treasurer and Controller of Examinations.

Gown Black silk with full sleeves.
Cap Black silk academic cap with black silk tassel.

Bachelors' Degree

Gown Black gown full sleeves.
Hood. Of black silk with dark blue lining

Master's Degree

Gown Black gown with full sleeves.
Hood of black silk with yellow lining
Cap Black academic cap with black silk tassel.

Doctor's Degree

Gown Black gown with full sleeves and two stripes, two inches wide, of purple velvet on the border running full length in front, and three stripes, each one-inch-wide and two inches apart of purple velvet four inches from the edge.
Hood of black silk with purple silk lining.
Cap Black academic cap with purple tassel.

- Note: (1) The Chancellor and the Pro-Chancellor may, at their option, wear academic costumes of velvet or silk.
(2) Fellows and officers of the University may, at their option, wear the academic costumes of the degree held by them.
(3) Wearing of a cap with the gown shall be optional.
(4) A black Jinnah Cap or a "White: PAGRI" may be worn as an alternative to the academic cap.

