

STATUTES AND REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN FULL AND PARTIAL RESIDENCE

I. DURATION OF THE COURSE (3-8 Year)

1. The duration for the Degree of PhD shall not be less than 06 and more than 14 semesters in full residence and not less than 08 and more than 16 semesters for the university employees admitted as part time students.
2. The employees of the government/ other agencies nominated for PhD degree at this University shall have to take study leave to pursue studies as a regular student, failing which he/ she shall not be admitted. However, after getting admission by a nominee in the university, it would be obligatory for the parent department to sanction the study leave or extension in the leave in favour of the nominee within one semester failing which his/her admission shall stand cancelled.

II. SCHEME OF STUDIES

3. The scheme of studies for each degree program will be shortly developed which may be amended from time to time. A student shall present an acceptable thesis in addition to completing his/her approved course work and comprehensive examination in order to qualify for the award of the degree.

III. MINIMUM REQUIREMENT FOR THE VARIOUS DEGREE PROGRAMS

4. A student admitted to the degree program shall be required to undertake the following course work:
 - (i) He/she shall take minimum 18 credits followed by comprehensive Examination. He/she will have to defend PhD synopsis and thesis at University level. Deficiency course(s) shall not be counted toward the minimum credit hours requirement.
 - (ii) The credit hours in the course work shall be two third from the major and one third from the minor field (s) of study. The minor field(s) of study be determined by the Supervisory Committee.

Explanation: The ratio of major and minor courses would be 2:1 and shall not apply to credits taken over and above the minimum requirement of 18 credits.

Example: The number of minimum credits under major and minor courses will be 12 and 6.
5. Public thesis defense is mandatory, in the presence of a board of senior researchers, consisting of members from an outside department/organization or a university.
6. The defense is done in a public presentation in which teachers and students can participate. The scholar presents his/her research work and answers the questions of the audience. The University will notify in advance the date, time and venue of the event via its website, newsletters and newspapers etc.

IV. TIME OF ADMISSION

7. A candidate seeking admission to the degree must:
 - (i) have passed M.Sc. (Hons.)/M.Phil./M.S/ six years education after F.A./F.Sc. for the degree on the basis of which admission is requested, in at least first division/CGPA 3.00) and qualified a GRE (subject) Type Test as may be prescribed by HEC and adopted by the Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) of Ghazi University, Dear Ghazi Khan.
 - (ii) produce at the time of the first enrollment, a certificate from the University Resident Medical Officer to the effect that he/she is free from any communicable (contagious) disease or mental or physical disability which is likely to stand in the way of his/her pursuing the chosen field of study.
8. The Academic Staff: A teacher / researcher of the Ghazi University, D G Khan (permanent & temporary) may be allowed to enroll himself / herself for postgraduate courses after getting permission from the competent authority. He / she under this arrangement will be a part time student and a full-time employee. He / she will be allowed to enroll maximum of two courses and one seminar or special problem in a semester and pay half dues of the semester along with examination fee. In case, he / she intends to take maximum credit hours allowed to a full-time student then he / she will have to take leave from the University and pay full University dues.

9. The administrative staff (permanent & temporary) of the Ghazi University, D G Khan will be treated at par for admission to various degree program. He/she will have to take leave from the University and pay full University dues.
10. If the course(s) studied by a candidate in his /her previous degree (on the basis of which admission is requested) does not provide adequate background for the degree program of study, he/she may be required to rectify the deficiency by taking additional course(s) as determined by the respective Departmental Board of Studies.
11. Admission may be conducted twice a year i.e. in the fall semester and spring semester. If a candidate fails to complete enrollment formalities i.e. deposit the semester dues and Course Registration Form in the office of the Directorate of Advanced Studies (DAS), his /her admission shall stand cancelled. However, nominees of HEC, Ghazi University, foreign countries and other government organizations, may be admitted up to the end of mid exams with the condition that they will have to cover up the courses by taking seminars, special problem and research project.
12. (i) The admission to a degree program shall be made by the Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) based on merit list prepared and checked by the Director Advanced Studies.
(ii) Lists of selected candidates would be displayed by the Director Advanced Studies and if needed subsequent lists would be displayed till the last seat is filled up.
Explanation: The last list would be displayed keeping in view that 75% attendance in lectures would not suffer.
(iii) The Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) may refuse admission to a candidate without assigning any reason.
Explanation: All those students who were awarded minor penalty on account of their misconduct during their postgraduate studies shall be debarred from admission to the next study program for a period of two years after completion of their respective degree. After two years, they may be considered for admission to the postgraduate degree on the recommendations of the Students Affairs committee. In the same context, the students who were awarded a major penalty will be debarred for admission to a degree program for a period of three years. They may be considered for admission after 3 years after completion of their respective degree, on the recommendations of Students Affairs Committee.
13. (i) A candidate admitted to a degree program shall, far so long as he/ she has not submitted thesis, must enroll for each semester.
(ii) A student may discontinue enrolled semester before appearing in the final examination with the permission of the Vice Chancellor obtained through the Director Advanced Studies on the recommendations of the Dean/Director/ Principal, because of sickness duly certified by the University Medical Officer or due to circumstances beyond his/her control.
(iii) The facility of discontinuation shall be availed only once during whole degree program.
(iv) A student so permitted to discontinue is required to resume his/ her studies from next semester on the recommendations of Chairperson/ Director/Principal/ Dean concerned and notified by the Director advanced Studies.
(v) (a) A fellowship Awardee (HEC/Non HEC) will join a training program without discontinuation. On his/her return he/she would have to meet the enrollment formalities (Ex-post facto) of the training period. The training period, however, will not be counted towards residential period and the trainee will not claim for appreciation letter and cash prize.
(b) The name of the foreign scientists under whom the student completed his/her foreign training program will not be included in the panel of examiners for PhD thesis evaluation.
14. The Director Advanced Studies under special circumstances and on payment of late fee prescribed for this purpose may permit a student to enroll within ten days after the commencement of the classes.
(i) The Vice Chancellor may allow a student to enroll till the last day of the 4th week after the commencement of classes under special circumstances, in individual cases and reasons to be recorded, with double late fee prescribed for this purpose.

Explanation: After 4th week the Vice Chancellor may also decide the request (s) of the student (s) on case to case basis with fine (in addition to double late fee). However, such students would be themselves responsible for consequences (if any) of late enrollment.

(ii) Enrollment in absentia is not allowed. Student is required to be present in person with a proof of identification (University Identity Card or Computerized National Identity Card etc.) for enrollment.

(iii) Enrollment will only be considered completed when enrolment form is submitted to the office of the Director Advanced Studies. Only depositing of fee will not serve the purpose.

15. (i) If a student fails to enroll in any semester without permission of the competent authority, he/she shall cease to be on the rolls of the University and in case he/she desire readmission, he/she shall have to apply for the same.

(ii) The Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) may readmit such a candidate subject to payment of university prescribed fee for readmission and gap period (absent semester/s), while the period of gap semester(s) will also be counted toward(s) his/her residential period. (iii) The Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) may refuse admission if the reasons presented are not convincing.

V. Appointment of Supervisor/supervisory committee

16. (i) (a) The supervisory committee of a student for course work and research shall be proposed by the respective Board of Studies during 1st academic year.

(b) Supervisory Committee shall consist of two teachers from the major field of study and one from the minor field of study. However, the supervisor must be from the same University. An outstanding PhD faculty member from another university/research institution can be a co-supervisor on the supervisory committee.

(c) Supervisor of the student will act as Chairperson of the supervisory committee.

(d) Supervisory committee proposed by the respective Board of Studies and recommended by the Chairperson/Director of the institute/ Principal and Dean of the faculty concerned shall be approved by the Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) and would be notified by the Director Advanced Studies.

(e) Supervisory committee may be revised for the reasons of change to be recorded.

(ii) In case, a student duly recommended by the Chairperson and Dean/ Director/ Principal concerned to conduct his/her complete/part of thesis research in other institution/ laboratory, is allowed by the Director Advanced Studies, the helping scientist may be taken as co-supervisor on the supervisory committee of the student.

(iii) The Professor emeritus may act as supervisor/member of supervisory committee if he/she is stationed at D G Khan.

(iv) Foreign Faculty members, HEC National Professors/ HEC eminent scientists may act as supervisor/ member of the supervisory committee if they are appointed for three years.

(v) Retired teachers of the Ghazi University may continue as supervisor/member of the supervisory committee to their previous postgraduate students if they had supervised the students up to the approval of the synopsis. However, on re-employment for three years they may be given supervision of a new student.

(vi) Contract and Interim Placement of Fresh PhD program (IPFP) teachers may act as supervisor/ member of the supervisory committee only where there is a shortage of regular faculty members. Faculty on Tenure Track System (TTS) will be considered as regular faculty for the subject purpose.

VI. Examinations

(A) Examination Fee

17. University examination fee shall be charged at the time of enrollment of each semester.

(B) Tests and Examinations

18. (i) There shall be two examinations mid and final in each semester. In addition to these examinations the teacher shall give home assignments and quizzes etc. to the students. The form of these examinations will be left to the teacher who will be solely responsible

- for the conduct of examination as well as evaluation in his/her course. The grade given in the course by the teacher shall be final.
- (ii) Only those students, who have at least 75% attendance in theory and practical separately in each course, shall be eligible to appear in the final examination.
 - (iii) A teacher shall report to the Director Advanced Studies through the Chairperson/Director and recommended by the Dean/Principal, names of the students who will remain absent (lecture/practical) continuously for a week without prior permission. Director Advanced Studies will cancel /strike off the admission of such students.
 - (iv) Students may seek readmission with the permission of the Director Advanced Studies on the recommendations of the Chairperson/Director and Dean / Principal within timeline i.e. up to 75% attendance.
19. The final examination for semester shall be held on a date and time and place to be notified by the teacher as per approved academic Calendar.
20. To pass deficiency course(s) a student is required to obtain at least "B" grade.
21. The scripts of each examination shall be discussed with the students.
22. (i) The mid-semester examination shall be held during 9th week of the semester which shall carry 30 per cent of the total allocated marks for the course. This examination shall be held by the teacher concerned who shall determine the form of the examination.
- (ii) For the purpose of evaluation, one credit will carry 20 Marks e.g. a 3 credits course will carry 60 marks. These marks will be divided in accordance with the credits assigned to theory and practical for each course.
- (iii) The following weightage shall be given to the examinations.
- | | |
|-----------------------------|------|
| a. Mid-semester examination | 30% |
| b. Sessional | 10% |
| c. Final examination | 60% |
| Total: | 100% |
- (Fractions in total marks of a course will be rounded to the nearest whole number).
23. To qualify a course, it is essential to pass separately in the theory and practical examinations.
- (i) The teacher shall send the final award list along with answer sheets of mid, final and practical for the course to the office of the Controller of Examinations within 07 days from the last paper as per date sheet, who will notify the complete result(s) within eight weeks after the last date of submission of result(s). Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) may condone the delay in result submission up to one semester. A copy of the award list should also be sent to the office of the Chairperson/ Director /Principal concerned and Director Advanced Studies.
- (ii) If a student appears in mid examination but cannot appear in final examination due to the reason(s) beyond his/her control except lecture shortage, may be awarded "I" grade. However, such student may appear within the next semester without enrollment of the said course. If he/she fails to qualify the said course, he/she will be awarded "F" grade.
24. On receipt of the award lists, the Controller of Examinations shall notify the results and send copies to the Director Advanced Studies, Dean/ Director/ Principal and the Chairmen of the Departments concerned.

(C) Grade Point Average

25. Grade point and Equivalence between letter grading and numerical grading shall be as follows:

Grade	Value	Marks(%)	Remarks
A	4	80-100	Excellent
B	3	65-79	Good
C	2	50-64	Satisfactory
I	-	-	Incomplete/in-progress
F	0	Below 50	Fail

26. If a student fails to obtain CGPA of 3.00 at the end of each academic year (Fall, Spring and following summer) his/her admission shall stand canceled. However, he/she may seek fresh admission but only once.

Note: The student who avails only one regular semester (fall/spring) must obtain GPA of 3.00 at the end of summer session of the same academic year to remain on roll.

(D). Comprehensive Examination

27. A PhD scholar will qualify comprehensive examination, within first two years as a regular student and within three years as a part-time student. Failure to qualify comprehensive examination within prescribed duration will render the admission canceled.

Explanation: The comprehensive examination shall be arranged 3 times in year i.e 3rd week of April, August and December while the date and venue of examination shall be notified within first week of this month. A student will have to apply for comprehensive examination on the prescribed form after the completion of course work. If a student does not apply within the specified period or does not appear in the examination, he/she will be deemed to have availed one chance and failed to qualify in the first attempt.

28. The comprehensive examination will cover both major and minor fields of study and will consist of a written part followed by an oral part. It will be designed to ascertain whether the student has attained the breadth of knowledge and the intellectual maturity necessary to become a successful scholar in his/her chosen discipline. It will not be a mere re-examination of previous courses but will test the students' ability to integrate and assimilate the knowledge obtained from the courses, seminars and independent studies.
29. A student has to apply on the prescribed form for comprehensive examinations to the office of the Director Advanced Studies(for 1 st and 2nd attempts) under Regulations 28 and 31. In case the student does not apply/appear in the examination, his/her chance will lapse.
30. If a student does not qualify written part of the comprehensive examinations, he/she shall be eligible to appear again but only once and in next examination from the date of the declaration of the result.
31. A student who has passed the comprehensive examination shall be deemed to have become a candidate for admission to PhD degree.

Comprehensive Examination - Written Part

32. The Controller of Examinations shall, with the approval of the Vice Chancellor, notify the date, time and venue of the examination at least two weeks before the commencement of the examination.
33. Examiners for the written comprehensive examination shall be appointed by the Vice Chancellor, processed through Controller of Examinations office from a panel of examiners (three for each paper) proposed by respective Board of Studies. The number of papers shall be three (two in major and one in minor fields).
34. Each member shall, within seven days after the receipt of the answer books, return them duly marked to the Controller of Examinations along with the award list.
35. (i) To pass the written examination a student must secure 65% marks in each paper separately.
(ii) If a student fails in two or more papers, he/she will be re-examined in all the papers. In case a student fails in one paper, he/she can reappear only in the failed paper but only once in next examination.
ii) The duration of written examinations will be five hours.

Comprehensive Examination - Oral Part

36. A student shall be eligible to appear in oral part after qualifying the written part. The Controller of Examinations shall in consultation with the Chairperson, Boards of Examiner, notify the date, time and venue for the oral comprehensive examination through video conference within six weeks after the date of declaration of the result of the written comprehensive examinations.
37. (i) For oral comprehensive examinations, the Board of examiners will comprise of:
(a) Three Examiners of written part

- (b) concerned Dean/Director
 - (c) two members appointed by the Vice Chancellor (V C nominees) amongst the University teachers. Chairperson of the Board of Examiners for oral examination will be appointed by the Vice Chancellor.
 - (ii) The duration of oral comprehensive examination will be three hours. It will be held in the video Conference room and all proceedings of the examination will be recorded.
38. The Chairperson of the Board of Examiners shall be responsible for the conduct of the oral examination and shall determine the order in which each member of the Board shall put questions to the student. The members shall be free to ask any number of questions.
 39. At the conclusion of the oral examination, each member shall separately grade the student and the Chairperson of the Board of Examiners shall forward the award lists to the Controller of Examinations.
 40. (i) To pass the oral examination a student must secure 65% marks. During the conduct of oral comprehensive examination if consensus emerges that the student has qualified except one examiner, the student will be considered 'qualified'.
 - (ii) If a student fails to qualify oral examination, he/she will be reexamined only once within two months after the declaration of oral examination result.

(E) Thesis Examination

41. A candidate who has passed both the written and oral parts of comprehensive examination shall be allowed to submit thesis. But before submission, PhD thesis will be placed in the office of the Director/Chairperson of the concerned Institute / Department/ Center for one week prior to its submission for foreign evaluation. The Faculty and students will be invited to peruse the thesis for any suggestions/ corrections. The suggestions received if in order will be incorporated through the supervisory committee.
42. (i) A student shall be entitled to submit thesis for examination after he/she has qualified the approved course work, qualified the comprehensive examination (written and oral) and has also fulfilled the residential requirements. He/she is required to submit requisition form and thesis examination fee before the submission of semi-final thesis.
- (ii) The thesis shall be prepared according to the guidelines approved by the Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) and shall be submitted to the office of the Director Advanced Studies
- (iii) The thesis duly certified by the supervisory committee that the contents and form of the thesis are satisfactory for submission shall be sent to the external examiner by the office of the Controller of Examinations (CE) for evaluation.
- (iv) Two examiners out of a panel of twelve experts from the list of the approved countries (attached as appendix), recommended by the respective Board of Studies shall be appointed by the Vice Chancellor for the evaluation of thesis. The panel of experts should represent at least 4 countries.
- (v) The Controller of Examinations shall get the thesis evaluated within four months after the date of submission/ resubmission of thesis to his office. Any delay beyond three months must be brought to the notice of the Vice Chancellor.
43. The thesis must be an original and scholarly contribution to the knowledge of the candidate's chosen field of study.
44. Each External Examiner shall explicitly state in his/her report:
 - (i) Whether or not the thesis is of enough merit to justify the award of PhD Degree to the candidates.
 - (ii) Whether the candidate should be allowed to revise and resubmit his thesis. In the latter case the broad lines on which the thesis should be revised must be clearly stated.
45. If both the examiners approve the thesis, the candidate shall be allowed to defend his thesis at University level. This presentation shall be evaluated in the presence of Examination Committee comprising of Supervisory Committee and two External Examiners to be appointed by the Vice Chancellor out of a panel of six experts in the relevant field from within the country other than University suggested by the Board of Studies. If the Examination Committee approves the thesis, the final submission would be allowed. A certificate to this effect be issued by the Examination Committee.

Explanation: The declarations to be submitted by a PhD scholar at the time of submission of thesis are as under:

- (i) Authors declaration
- (ii) Plagiarism undertaking by the PhD scholar
- (iii) Certificate of approval of PhD thesis by Examination Committee (The specimen of undertaking to be submitted by the scholar (attached as appendix).

Note: The thesis defense will be conducted within four months from the date of dispatch of second report of thesis evaluation from the office of the Controller of Examinations. Under unavoidable circumstances the thesis defense may be conducted through video conference arrangement if a Supervisor/Member is abroad. However, the Vice Chancellor may allow extension for thesis defense up to six months within permissible residential period, in hardship cases.

46. If both the examiners reject thesis, the candidate shall be declared as failed. However, the Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) may allow a student to re-conduct his/her research and re-submit his/her thesis on a new topic as recommended by his Supervisory Committee. This facility would be available only once within the period of residential requirements i.e.10/14 semesters.
- (i) If both the examiners approved the thesis, the candidate shall be recommended for the award of degree.
 - (ii) When both the examiners suggest either no revision/minor revision the student should submit three bound copy of the thesis within six months, otherwise he/she shall be no more a student of the University.
47. If one of the examiners approves the thesis and the other rejects it, it shall be sent to a third examiner, for evaluation. If the third examiner approves the thesis, the candidate shall be recommended for the award of the degree, otherwise he/she shall be declared as failed.
48. If one of the examiners approves the thesis and the other is of the view that it is not acceptable in the form in which it has been presented but requires revision, the following procedure shall be followed:
- (i) The Supervisory Committee of the candidate may either:
 - (a) Write to the examiners concerned explaining why it is not possible to revise the thesis and taking that it should be examined in its original form, or
 - (b) If the views of the examiner were acceptable to the Committee, require the candidate to revise and resubmit the thesis within a period not exceeding two semesters, for re-evaluation.
 - (ii) If the examiner approves the original thesis or the revised thesis the candidate shall be recommended for the award of the degree.
 - (iii) In case of disagreement between the Supervisory Committee and the examiner, the matter shall be referred to the Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) which may suggest such action as it may consider expedient.
49. If both the examiners express the opinion that the thesis as presented, is not acceptable, but required revision the following procedure shall be adopted:
- (i) In case the lines, on which the examiners have suggested revision of the thesis, are substantially the same and are acceptable to the Supervisory Committee, they shall call upon the candidate to revise the thesis on these lines and re-submit it within a period not exceeding two semesters, for reevaluation. The revised thesis shall then be sent to the examiners and the procedure laid down in regulation(s) shall be followed (46-48).
 - (ii) In case the lines on which the examiners have suggested revision are not acceptable to the Supervisory Committee, the matter shall be referred to the Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) which may suggest such action as it may consider expedient.
 - (iii) In case a candidate, who is required to revise and resubmit his/her thesis, does not do so within the period allowed, he/she shall be declared to have failed.
50. Publication of at least one research paper online or as hard copy in Impact Factor journals (W) category/HEC approved "X" category journal + ISI Master List Journals (Y category + ISI Master List Journals in case of Social Sciences) while "Z" category journals only for local regional languages e.g. Punjabi, Pushto, Sindhi, Balochi, Brahvi, Saraiki & Persian) is essential for the award of Ph.D. degree. The financial incentive to teachers will be redeemable after the publication of the papers. The name of only active members of supervisory committee will be added in the publication. The name of co-supervisor/helping scientist from aboard may be included in the research papers.

Note:

- (i) The expenditure to be incurred on research articles submitted to W category journals will be borne by the University.
 - (ii) Two copies of English and Urdu articles (soft and hard) to be published in the National Press.
 - (iii) Final approved three copies of hardbound PhD. Thesis along with two computer disc (CDs) one each for HEC and University Library.
51. Before foreign evaluation, the thesis will be checked for plagiarism by QEC and report shall be submitted to the Controller of Examinations. The similarity index/plagiarism should be within prescribed limit (up to 19%).
52. If the thesis of a candidate is proved to be plagiarized after its evaluation and declaration of result, previous result of the candidate will be canceled, and he/she will be declared to have failed in thesis examination. Such a candidate shall not be readmitted to PhD under any circumstances.
